Debtor/s		DECLARATION OF JUSTIN S. GUTHRIE

This Declaration is made under penalty of perjury. I am the Debtor in this case and make this statement of my own personal knowledge.

In 2007 I purchased a 2006 Sea Ray boat financed by BECU. I made the payments for years but I lost my job in early 2011. My new job was at a much lower salary. I withdrew money from my 401K to keep making the payments but by the end of 2011 I was unable to continue to make the payments.

I spoke with BECU on many occasions to try to restructure the loan to reflect my new circumstances but was unable to get the loan restructured. In December, 2011, I met with several representatives of BECU at its offices in Kent. I reviewed my circumstances with them but we were unable to come to any agreement to modify the loan.

One of their people, I do not remember which, presented me with a "Transfer of Ownership" form and asked me to sign it. I understood this to be a full transfer of my rights in the boat in satisfaction of the debt and I signed the document with that understanding. Attached is a true and correct copy of that document. I left the meeting believing that my debt had been settled and that I had no further obligations to BECU.

I cleaned it up and delivered the boat to BECU's agent. After that time, I never received any notice of BECU's intention to dispose of the boat and it was not until I received a Notice of Sale in
